BCEL Attended a Seminar Under Opportunity Day for Listed Companies for the First Haft of 2025

On the Morning of Wednesday, September 24, 2025.

Banque Pour Le Commerce Exterieur Lao Public (BCEL) attended a seminar under Opportunity Day for listed companies for the first haft of 2025 at the Lao Securities Exchange (LSX), which was also broadcast live on the Lao Securities Exchange Facebook page. The purpose of the event was to provide an opportunity for companies listed on the LSX to meet with and present information to both domestic and international investors.

Representing BCEL and delivering a presentation on BCEL's business performance for the first haft of 2025 and its future business plans were Mrs. Phousengthong Anoulakkham, Deputy Managing Director of BCEL, Mr. Sonenalin Sengmany, Deputy Chief of the Administration-Finance Division, and Mr. Vanpaseuth Bounnaphonh, Deputy Chief of the Research and Development Division.

This seminar served not only as a platform for investors, media, and other interested parties to directly exchange information and ask questions about BCEL's business operations, but also as a way to promote more vibrant and dynamic share trading activities on the LSX, in line with Investor Relations (IR) initiatives.
