Signing a Cooperation Agreement between Lao Cement Public Company and Group of Yunnan Institutional Design Company limited

On 29 December 2022, Lao Cement Public Company and Group of Yunnan Institutional Design Company limited signed a cooperation agreement, which aims to create an overall plan for Lao Cement Company in the construction of an economic demonstration zone for the tourism industry in VangVieng.

Mr. Nei Lei, Managing Director of Lao Cement Public Company (LCC) with management team of company such as Mr. Vichit Souvanhnalath, Mr. Liou Lin, Mr. Zhang Zhing Wa, Mr. Xia Liang Wou, Mr. Wang Xi, and Mr. Wang Hong Wei, the assistant to Chairman of the Group of Yunnan Institutional Design Company limited, Head of business contract department, Mr Mou Sin Yu, secretary to Hongyuan asset management in the Group of Yunnan Institutional Design Company limited, Mar Kang Xue Zhuan , a chief engineer of business contract, Mr. Lee Ta, the person in charge of the Group of Yunnan Institutional Design Company limited, Mr. Zhang Liu, Chief of project, Mr Peung Yan Tong, Chief of project, participated in the signing ceremony of the cooperation agreement.

Both parties shall focus on planning and developing tourism as a whole in Laos based on the principle of mutual benefit, mutual cooperation, joint cooperation, together to develop and build a demonstration area for the tourism industry in VangVieng. The project includes the construction of an industrial museum, the ancient city of Lanexange, the Lao National Animal-Plant Conservation center, a large-scale ethnic art exhibition field, an elephant conservation park, a Lao Tourism and Culture School, Asia's special food street and other projects. The construction of the demonstration area is important for the development of the tourism sector in Laos.

